Chapel Bridge

Lion monument

[Zurich Cathedral]

The Zurich Cathedral is one of the three main churches in Zurich, Switzerland (the other two are the Cathedral of Our Lady of Zurich and St. Peter's Church). The church is located near the banks of the Limmat River. Today's church was built around 1100 and was unveiled around 1220. According to legend, the earliest church was created for Charlemagne. The Zurich Cathedral is a monastery church that competes with the Cathedral of Our Lady of Zurich across the Limmat River in the Middle Ages. Charlemagne's mount stumbled in front of the tombs of the main saints Felix and Regula in Zurich. According to legend, it was earlier than the Cathedral of Our Lady, which was built by the grandson of Charlemagne. Recent archaeological evidence proves that this is the Roman cemetery.

[Lake Zurich]

Lake Zurich is the famous icy lake in Switzerland. The scenery of Lake Zurich is superb, with medieval pebble trails along the river for visitors to take a walk by the lake, swimming, picnicking, sunbathing and boat trips to the Lake District.

[Bahnhofstrasse]

Bahnhofstrasse in Zurich, Switzerland is the richest street in the world. The main street was built during the Roman rule in 15 BC and became one of the most prosperous and "expensive" streets in the city.

[Chapel Bridge]

Chapel Bridge is a covered wooden footbridge spanning the river Reuss diagonally in Lucerne. Named after the nearby St. Peter's Chapel, the bridge is unique in containing a number of interior paintings dating back to the 17th century, although many of them were destroyed along with a larger part of the centuries-old bridge in a 1993 fire. Subsequently restored, the Kapellbrücke is the oldest wooden covered bridge in Europe, as well as the world's oldest surviving truss bridge. It serves as the city's symbol and as one of Switzerland's main tourist attractions.

[Lion monument]

The dying Lucerne lion is one of the most famous statues in the world, and the famous writer Mark Twain called it "the most tragic and touching statue in the world."

[St. Vitus Cathedral]

The Katedrál sv. Víta is located in the Prague Castle on the west bank of the Vltava River and is one of the most important landmarks of Prague Castle. The outer walls of the west facades of the two new Gothic spires, which are 82 meters high, have been baptized by the years, but they are like a stalwart, but the ceremonies are still there. St. Vitus Cathedral is also known for its beautiful stained glass windows. If you are lucky, you can see the sun shining through the window into the church, sprinkling a colorful halo.

[Charles Bridge]

Across the Vltava River, the Charles Bridge connects the Prague Castle and the Old Town at both ends. Although the mighty scenes of the medieval knights crossing the bridge no longer exist, for the tourists who come here, it is enough to stroll on the bridge and let them surrender and surrender in the history of the earth. They are deeply satisfied.

[Prague Castle]

Prague Castle is located on the hills of the Vltava River in the Czech Republic, at the commanding heights of the entire city. From Prague Castle, you can enjoy panoramic views of the entire city. Whenever sunset, the colorful sunset glows on the bright red roofs of Prague, forming a fascinating ink painting that is absolutely amazing!

[Prague Square]

Prague is the capital of the Czech Republic and one of the most beautiful cities in Europe. Its most famous square is the Old Town Square. The center of the Old Town Square is the statue of Jan Hus. The most distinctive ancient building in the square is the self-timer. The name Prague is from German. It is called Braha, which means "threshold". The reason is that the Vltava River flows through a reef, and the water is rushing, just like crossing a threshold.

[Golden alley]

Located in the Prague Castle, Zlatá ulička is a protected medieval-style alley. The street name is derived from the 16th century alchemists, who say they want to refine gold here. The whole street is quite delicate and lovely, with a fairytale look and soft tones, small doors and windows, low roofs and many chimneys are very popular with tourists. The famous Czech Jewish writer Kafka rented for two years in the 22nd apartment on this street because there is a quiet writing environment.

[Prague Astronomical Clock]

On the south wall of the old town hall, the astronomical clock gathers visitors from all over the world to stop and take photos to look at the clock that has been around for more than 600 years. The shape of the whole clock is very beautiful, according to the principle of the Earth Center of the year. The clock above circled around the day, the following year rounded around the week, every day at 12 noon, on the astronomical clock, the twelve beautiful Jesus disciples appeared in order from the side of the clock, six turned left, six Turn right. With a roar of the rooster, the window closes and the clock sounds.
