[Pope palace]

Originally built in 1334, it covers an area of about 15,000 square meters and is the largest and most important medieval Gothic building in Europe. In 1906, the palace was transformed into a national museum. There are now more than 20 rooms to visit, including the Pope's room, and a review of historical events.

[Broken bridge]

It was first completed in 1185 and appeared in French nursery rhymes. It is 900 meters long and spans the Rhone River, connecting the Old Town with the New Town. In the 17th century, a flood washed the bridge, and only a part of the broken bridge survived to this day.

[Notre Dame Cathedral]

Rebuilt in the middle of the twelfth century, it is the oldest religious building in Avignon. The church has a bell tower with a total of 35 clocks. It is said that the sound of the French bell tower is the second loudest. Each bell has its own name. Because the size is different, the sound is different.

[Promenade]

The Promenade is the most fascinating attraction in Cannes. It is wide and tidy, with a sandy bay on one side and an elegant hotel on the other. The hotel's buildings are built in the last century and have very modern buildings. In the green belt in the middle of the street, there are flowers blooming all year round, and the vibrant palm trees in the sun add a charm to the town.
