Day 1 Paris Loire Bordeaux

Tour Overview

In the morning, Paris departs for the Chambord, which is regarded by the French as a national treasure. Its architectural style combines the traditional French architectural art with the influence of the Italian Renaissance and is included in the Century Heritage List. In the afternoon, enjoy the [Shenongsuo Water Castle], which is built on the two stone piers of an old mill on the river bed of the Cher River. It forms a very natural and harmonious landscape with rivers, gardens and green trees. Go to Bordeaux or around.

Chenonceau Castle

Chambord

[Chenonceau Castle]

Located in the south of Amboise, the castle of Chenonceau straddles the river Cher, and forms a very natural and harmonious landscape with rivers, gardens and trees.

[Chambord]

Chambord is the most magnificent and largest of all the castles in the Loire Valley and has a history of more than 500 years. Nearby residents often like to seal it and the feminine Chenonceau as a king in the French castle.

St. Andrew's Cathedral

Water mirror square

[St. Andrew's Cathedral]

St. Andrew's Cathedral is located in the heart of Bordeaux, opposite the square in front of the church and the town hall. The church was built in the 11th century and the main hall is a Roman-style building. In the era of British rule, the church was expanded because it was considered small. In 1137, Louis XVII and Ali Lino Dakitnu held a wedding in this church. The north side of the church was built in 1250. The German King's Gate is engraved with the "Last Judgment" regarded as one of the highest masterpieces of Goethe's art.

[Water mirror square]

The Water Mirror Plaza was built in 2006 and covers an area of 3,450 square meters. It was named after a thin layer of water on the ground and a mirror effect. The ancient Bordeaux was modernized and baptized, and the fountain called the miroir d'eau was built on the banks of the Garonne. It is one of the shooting spots of "Love".

Day 3 Andorra 🚗 Girona 🚗 Barcelona

Tour Overview

After breakfast, the hotel departs for Andorra, a landlocked country at the junction of France and Spain in southwestern Europe. There are mountains and lakes all over the country, snow-capped winters and grassy summers. The spring and autumn scenery has a unique charm. The scenery is extremely beautiful. It is a natural ski resort and hunting ground. Visit the Rotonda Square and the Church of San Estefan. Visit the historic Carcassonne Castle in the mountains. After a visit to Girona, the largest city in northern Catalonia, the walls of Girona and the lazy moat surround the densely populated houses, huge churches, upwardly extending narrow roads and medieval bathhouses. A city worth visiting. Afterwards, proceed to Barcelona or its surrounding hotels.

Girona

Església de Sant Esteve

Andorra La Vell

[Girona]

Girona is located 100 km north of Barcelona. As early as the Middle Ages, there were famous Jews living here, and the quiet town still preserved many Jewish relics. Girona developed along the right bank of the Onyar River, and most of the city's famous monuments and old towns are located on the hillside. The surrounding area of the old city was once surrounded by the city walls. Unfortunately, some of the city walls have ceased to exist today, but the beautiful roofs and labyrinth streets can still be seen from the ruins. The main attraction of Girona lies in its intricate cloths and alleys, which are made up of winding lanes, which are cut off by the stone steps leading to the church, and the trees are lined with stone steps.

[Església de Sant Esteve]

Located in the southwest of Andorra, the church is the oldest church in the country. The church is characterized by a 4-storey cylindrical clock tower and a 12th-century fresco called Agnus Dei, originally located here. The murals are currently preserved in Berlin.

Plaza Catalunya

Sagrada Familia

Plaza of Spain

Barceloneta Beach

[Plaza Catalunya]

Located in the heart of Barcelona, the Plaza Catalunya is connected to the old town and the extension. It is also the starting point for the city's main streets, Rambla and Gracia. The beautiful wide square is covered with green lawns, and there are beautiful stone statues of the goddess of peace, and the posture is peaceful and dignified: the fountain of flying beads jumping jade is diverse, just like the Crystal Palace.

[Sagrada Familia]

Sacred House - Sagrada Familia, a church group consisting of many spires and towers, a masterpiece by Gaudi, a famous Catalan architect. Originally built in 1884, the slender lines are the main feature, and the dome and interior structure show neo-gothic style.

[Plaza of Spain]

Plaza de Espana - an important square in Barcelona, built for the 1929 World's Fair, at the foot of Montjuïc. It is one of the largest squares in Barcelona and is the intersection of several main roads.

[Barceloneta Beach]

Barceloneta, near the Olympic Village, is Barcelona's most famous beach and a sexy beach that is 1.6 kilometers long. On the beach, the Spaniards who enjoy the sun, cycling, and roller skating are everywhere. The blue Mediterranean is warm and soft at the moment, dancing with a beautiful rhythm, accompanied by the sea breeze, the relaxed and satisfying sense of mind and body.

Pope palace

Broken bridge

[Pope palace]

Originally built in 1334, it covers an area of about 15,000 square meters and is the largest and most important medieval Gothic building in Europe. In 1906, the palace was transformed into a national museum. There are now more than 20 rooms to visit, including the Pope's room, and a review of historical events.

[Broken bridge]

It was first completed in 1185 and appeared in French nursery rhymes. It is 900 meters long and spans the Rhone River, connecting the Old Town with the New Town. In the 17th century, a flood washed the bridge, and only a part of the broken bridge survived to this day.

Day 6 Valence 🚗 Annecy 🚗 Dijon

Tour Overview

After breakfast, head to the small French town of Annecy, a small town called "Venice in the mountains", located on the border between France and Switzerland, and only over 30 kilometers from Geneva, Switzerland. When the spring comes, the snow and ice of the Alps melt into the Lake Annecy in the city, and the lakes and mountains gulls dance. After that, we will drive into France, and the scenery along the way will flow like a wave of waves to the front, and stay in Dijon or its surroundings at night.

the whole day 🕒

Annecy Town

[Annecy Town]

Annecy is the most beautiful town in the French Alps, known as the "Alpine Balcony", also known as "Venice of Savoie". The waters of Lake Annecy come from the snow and ice of the Alps and are considered to be the cleanest lakes in Europe. The layout of the city is very hard, even in the winter, it is also a green tree with flowers and flowers, and it looks like a glance. One of the most famous classics in the old city is the small island "Zhonghuangdao" on the river. A triangular ship-shaped stone castle on the island is a representative ancient building of Annecy. It was built in the 12th century and has undergone changes in the times. It is still the most mirrored building in Europe until now.

Palace of the Dukes of Burgundy

Place de la Libération

[Palace of the Dukes of Burgundy]

The Palace of the Dukes and Estates of Burgundy, located in Dijon, is a remarkable example of preserved architecture. The oldest parts of the palace date back to the 14th and 15th centuries, showcasing the Gothic style of the period. These include the ducal palace, the seat of the Dukes of Burgundy, and various other structures such as the ducal kitchens and the tour de Philippe le Bon.

[Place de la Libération]

The Place de la Libération, in the heart of Dijon's historic centre, is a royal square dating from the late 17th century. It took its current name in 1948. Located in front of the Palace of the Dukes of Burgundy, it was designed as a setting for a bronze equestrian statue of Louis XIV, which was destroyed during the French Revolution.
