European Parliament Center

[Little france]

A small French area is covered with medieval wooden truss houses and Baroque sandstone buildings. The canal bridges are criss-crossed, with brown roofs and old houses built with black wooden slats along the way. The area was completely destroyed during the Second World War, rebuilt after the war, and was listed on the World Heritage List in 1988.

[European Parliament Center]

The European Parliament Centre is built along the river in the new town of Strasbourg and stretches nearly 500 meters along the river. The entire building is covered with Galileo's parabola to define the interior of the building. Kepler's ellipse first defines the building plane, glass. The curtain wall and the river are against each other, with blue sky and white clouds, and nestled in the old city, there is no sense of violation.

The dragon's four corners are decorated with bronze dragon statues. The dragon as the mascot of Ljubljana is the highest rate of appearance in Ljubljana. The bridge was built in 1900-1901 and was the first reinforced concrete structure in Ljubljana. It was also one of the largest reinforced concrete bridges in Europe at the time. At first he was called Emperor Franz. Joseph I bridged the bridge, and the original design of the bridgehead should be a flying lion instead of a dragon, and the architect Danimatić from Dalmatia gave the appearance of the Art Nouveau style of Long Bridge.

[Dubrovnik Walls]

The Dubrovnik Walls are defensive stone walls that surround the Old City. They have stood in the south of Croatia since the 7th century and are considered to be one of the greatest defense systems of the Middle Ages and have never been destroyed by the enemy. In 1979, the Old City of Dubrovnik and a large part of the city wall were included in the World Cultural Heritage List by UNESCO. Stroll through the walls of the Old Town and enjoy the perfect view.

[Franciscan Monastery]

The Franciscan Monastery is located in the west of the Old Town and was built in 1317. It is a treasured cultural, artistic and historical heritage of Dubrovnik. The carved stone in the cloister complements the surrounding environment. A museum was set up in the monastery, divided into a pharmacy and a library. The former is one of the oldest similar pharmaceutical establishments in Europe and is still in use today; the latter is the most important ancient library in Croatia, with more than 1,200 precious manuscripts, 137 ancient books, 7 volumes of ancient church hymns and about More than 2,000 pieces of religious ceremonial objects and paintings are invaluable.

[Banje Beach]

Banje Beach is Dubrovnik's most famous beach, offering an excellent view of the old city walls and Lokrum Island, attracting visitors from all over the world. Walking on the cobbled beaches, the crystal clear water gently touches your feet, the beach is very suitable for sports, and the bar street next to it attracts young people to stop.

[Plitvice Lakes National Park]

The most desirable lake, waterfall and wildlife habitat in Europe - Plitvice is known as the Plitvice Lakes National Park because of its main 16 lakes. Whether it is scenery or geological origin, the Plitvice Lakes group is very similar to Jiuzhaigou in China, so in China, it is often referred to as "European Jiuzhaigou". The waterfall with the largest drop here is nearly 200 meters, and the smallest drop is only 2 meters. I don't know if it is the smallest waterfall in the world. Unlike the famous Great Falls, the rush is not a feature of the Plitvice Lakes waterfall. The feminine and quietness created by silk silk is the special feature here.

[Zadar city gate]

The gates of Zadar are the gates of the Venetians built in 1543, one of the landmarks of Zadar. The flying San Marco stone lion statue in the center of the city gate shows the origin of the royal family in Venice. Under the stone lion is the statue of the patron saint, guarding the history of Zadar

[Sea organ]

The world's unique sea organ, built in 2005, is a group of 70-meter-long waterfall ladders leading to the sea. It is equipped with 35 pipes of different caliber sizes and different slopes, which are issued by the impact of sea breeze and waves. sound. The unique Zalda "sea organ" in the world. The principle of vocalization is to place the music tube under the marble steps on the seashore, and use the movement of the waves to exert pressure on the air inside the tube to make a sound. Therefore, the player of the sea organ is a wave, it is nature.
