[Königssee]

Königssee is located 5 km south of the small town of Berchtesgaden on the German-Austrian border. It is a narrow and beautiful lake eroded by glaciers. It is like a northern fjord and the lake is clear. The lake is like a mirror, Bishengmeiyu, surrounded by mountains, and the mountains are steep. It feels like a giant who is in the mountains and crosses the boat. It is like a fairyland. It is known as the most beautiful lake in Germany. . It is said that the name of King Lake is derived from the surrounding mountains, one like a king, one like a queen, the middle of the hill is their children, and there is a witch peak lying in the distance.

[Zauberwald]

The enchanted forest is located in the Ramsau region of Berchtesgaden, a border town bordering Austria in Germany. You can cross the forest by walking through the forest. The forest trails follow the tributary of the Hintersee, and the stream is full of birds and flowers, suitable for walking. Zauberwald was named after the 1920s and 1930s and was known as the Magic Forest for its romantic atmosphere created by landslides, forests and streams, and later developed into a famous tourist attraction.
