[Neuschwanstein Castle]

Neuschwanstein has undoubtedly become a business card for German tourism. It is a famous castle in Germany with many tourists. It is located in the Alps on the southern border of Germany, on a hilltop nearly a kilometer high. This Ludwig II has a masterpiece of national strength, with fairy-tale looks and scenery. The interior of Neuschwanstein is also extremely graceful, but after all, it is impossible to cover up the tragic fate of Ludwig II. There is a Marien Bridge on the foothills behind Neuschwanstein Castle, from which you can see the panoramic view of Swan Castle.

[Oberammergau Town]

Oberammergau is a municipality in the district of Garmisch-Partenkirchen, in Bavaria, Germany. The small town on the Ammer River is known for its woodcarvers and woodcarvings, for its NATO School, and around the world for its 380-year tradition of mounting Passion Plays.

[Pilgrimage Church of Vis]

The Pilgrimage Church of Visus, a representative of the Rococo architecture, is a world-famous cultural heritage along the southern Alps.
