Tour Overview

Visit the wonderful city of Girona. Enjoy a guided walking tour of the Old Town, see the Cathedral and the ancient City Walls. Stroll along the Jewish Quarter. Explore the city during your free time. Discover the Dalí Theater-Museum and marvel at the largest art collection of Salvador Dalí art. Check in at our office in central Barcelona 15 minutes before the departure time of the activity. Board an air-conditioned coach, sit back and relax on the journey to Girona. After a 1-and-a-half-hour drive on the highway, you will arrive to the city. On arrival, follow your guide to the city center for a two-hour walking tour. Discover the Old Town and learn about some of the myths and legends related to the city. Learn about the Roman origins of this quaint town and see part of the preserved city walls. Walk the cobbled streets of the historic city center and marvel at the details of its buildings. After the guided tour you will have an hour of free time to explore the city at your own pace and have lunch. If you have chosen the option with visit to Figueres, meet your guide and head to this wonderful city where the Dalí Theatre-Museum is located. Once you arrive in Figueres, you will enter the Dalí Museum, you will access inside the building that today holds the collection, a reconstruction of the original one. The former was burned down during the Spanish Civil War. Enter the Museum and marvel at the largest collection of the artist artworks. See the evolution of his style through the years and wonder at some of his most important paintings. The Museum is a perfect representation of the artistic and historical value of his works. Once the tour of the Museum is over, we will get back on the bus to return to Barcelona. We will finish in the same place where we started the tour.

[Girona Cathedral]

Girona Cathedral (Catedral De Girona) is a Roman Catholic church located in Girona, Catalonia, Spain. The Cathedral is best known for its vast nave, being the widest Gothic nave in the world. Having been built and altered over a period spanning from the 11th to the 18th centuries, Girona Cathedral blends a variety of styles, including Romanesque, Baroque and, of course, Gothic.
