Day 1 London Cotswolds Shakespeare's Birthplace Burton on the Water Bibury London

Tour Overview

See some of the most beautiful spots in the UK on this excellent tour of Shakespeare's birthplace Stratford-upon-Avon and an official Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, the Cotswolds. An expert guide leads the way, regaling you with stories and interesting facts about the rich history of these beautiful places. Stratford-upon-Avon The home town of legendary playwright William Shakespeare is the first stop on this day trip. Filled with history, pay a visit to the place the famous Bard was born - a quaint, unassuming half-timbered house. Learn amazing stories and quirks of Elizabethan living from your expert guide. Next stop is a visit to Shakespeare's bride Anne Hathaway's cottage and gardens. This beautiful little thatched farmhouse is the place where the Bard courted his bride and still to this day holds items or original furniture, including the Hathaway bed. The Cotswolds Visit what is often agreed to be one of the most beautiful areas in the whole of the UK. Quaint villages and breathtaking scenery, the Cotswolds looks like it jumped off the pages of a storybook. The tour makes photo stops at stunning two Cotswolds villages including Bourton-on-the-Water, also known as 'Little Venice' due to its low bridges and stone banks, and Bibury, a town that William Morris once described as 'the most beautiful village in England'. After a wonderful day of sight seeing, arrive back to London at approximately 7:30pm.

[Shakespeare's Birthplace]

Shakespeare's Birthplace is a restored 16th-century half-timbered house situated on Henley Street, Stratford-upon-Avon, Warwickshire, England, where it is believed that William Shakespeare was born in 1564 and spent his childhood years. It is now a small museum open to the public and a popular visitor attraction, owned and managed by the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust.

[Private group_Bibury]

The most beautiful country in the world is in the UK, and the most beautiful country in the UK is Bibury. It satisfies your imagination of all the good things in the English countryside! The ancient tranquility and beauty of the English-style village are preserved here. The houses here are at least 400 years old. The honey-colored brick-walled cottages are arranged in rows. The creek was gurgling, and wild ducks were happily splashing in the water.

"Venice" of the Cotswolds. Water Burton has a small river running through it. There are many low, flat stone arch bridges along the river, which is why Bourton-on-the-Water is known as the "Venice" of the Cotswolds. There is a miniature English village model in the town of Bourton on the Water. Made of real bricks, it's like a Lego Miniland. Even the blooming flowers and the decorative turf are real.
