Day 1 Madrid Segovia Toledo Madrid

Tour Overview

Discover in one day two of the most important cities that you can visit from Madrid: Toledo and Segovia. In the morning, we will leave Madrid to go to the city of the three cultures, Toledo. For those who take the guided tour, you will have the opportunity to discover the Cathedral of Toledo. Built on the remains of an Arab mosque, its construction started in the 13th century. Today, it is one of the most important Gothic Cathedrals of Spain. Admire the magnificent façade and the huge bell tower before getting inside. Visit its interior and Sacristy, full of masterpieces of the former art museum it was. After visiting the Cathedral, we will have a short free time in the city, which you can use for shopping or having a coffee. If you prefer to explore Toledo on your own, you will have the chance to discover the city at your own pace. Its fascinating mix of cultures will surprise you at every step, with its rich architectural and cultural variety. It will be time to return to Madrid, where we will have approximately one hour for lunch. In the afternoon, we will visit Segovia. We will park very close to the Aqueduct, which will be the first monument we will find in the city. Formed by 167 arches, it is considered one of the best preserved in the world. We will have the opportunity to take a walking tour of the city, which will take us first of all to the Plaza Mayor. There are several monuments in this place, such as the Town Hall of Segovia or the Juan Bravo Theatre. At the end of the visit inside the Cathedral, we will have a short free time. The next stop will be the Alcázar, one of the best preserved and most famous medieval castles in the world.
