Day 1 Paris Bruges Paris

Tour Overview

We invite you to an escapade to Bruges, an experience you can enjoy at your leisure. You will discover the “Venice of the North”, strolling through the town at your own pace. Departure is at 7:15, from the center of Paris. Board our air conditioned bus to leave for your discover trip of Bruges, a magnificent city in the north of Belgium. You will then set off to discover Bruges, whose historic center was classified as a world heritage site by UNESCO in 2000. You will explore this town that is marked by its medieval architecture and the superb Gothic homes in multiple colors. While you stroll, you will be plunged into the charm of its typical small lanes and admire the magnificent Flemish homes. During your walk, you will see the symbolic sites of Bruges: the Grand Place, where you will find the Beffroi, the high tower that overlooks the Halles; the Cathédrale Notre-Dame of the XIIIth century; the Béguinage, a Benedictine monastery and the majestic Hôtel de Ville. You can also visit some museums that are home to Flemish art and the works of local craftsmen. You can, if you want, enrich your visit with a cruise on the famous romantic canals (Optional). This boat trip allows you to go deep into the special atmosphere of the city, where peace and romance blend together. This discovery excursion will also allow you to taste Belgian specialties, either for lunch, or an afternoon break. You can enjoy the famous “Moules/frites” (Mussels with French Fries), carbonade flamande (a traditional dish made of meat stewed in beer), Belgian waffles or the ever present Belgian chocolates. Our staff will give you a rendezvous time to leave Bruges at 4:30 and arrive in Paris around 9:00.
