Day 1 Paris Bruges Rotterdam

Tour Overview

Depart for Bruges, a city on a human scale, made great by its compelling history. Among other things, it was awarded the title of UNESCO World Heritage City. Exploring the historic city centre, get to know Bruges even better. We will visit the mysterious religious [Basilica of the Holy Blood], the world heritage site [Belfort (Belfry)] and the solemn [City Hall]. Next, head to Rotterdam, a young, dynamic city known for its modern architecture and impressive harbour. We'll visit the unique [Cube Houses (Kubuswoningen)], a singular architectural project composed of a set of buildings in the shape of an inverted cube. And then explore [Market Square]. Overnight in Rotterdam or nearby.

Meeting Point

 D1 Paris Departure: 08:30 Meeting Point: Place d'Italie (KFC, 211-213 Boulevard Vincent Auriol, 75013 Paris)

Bruges City Hall

Bruges Clock Tower

Basilica of the Holy Blood

[Bruges City Hall]

Bruges City Hall is the town hall of West Flanders Bruges, Belgium. This is one of the oldest town halls in the lowland countries. The Bruges City Hall is located in the Castle Square and was built in 1376 and completed in 1421. Late Gothic style, rectangular plane with turret. The impressively rich design reflects the economic prosperity of Bruges in the 14th century. On the walls and on the tomb of Count Flanders are pictures of the Bible and historical figures.

[Bruges Clock Tower]

The clock tower is located next to the main church. This clock tower can be said to be a symbol of Bruges, representing power and freedom. The clock tower is 83 meters high, and it takes 366 steps to reach the top of the building. Standing on the top of the building, you can overlook the entire city of Bruges. Daily timekeeping is the most important job at the moment, and it will also ring during major events or gatherings. Every day, there are a variety of musicians playing beautiful music in the bell tower, which is completed by 47 ancient clocks in the clock tower. Now the square where the clock tower is located is the most concentrated place for tourists and locals. You will also see the scene here in the movie "The Killer Without Holidays".

[Basilica of the Holy Blood]

The Holy Blood brought back by the Crusades of the 12th century was placed on the altar of the church. The church is a Roman-style double structure. The church above is a Gothic building from the 15th to the 16th century. The following is dedicated to St. Basili Ers's ashes hall.

Day 2 Rotterdam 🚆 Giethoorn 🚆 Zaanse Schans 🚆 Amsterdam

Tour Overview

After breakfast, head to [Giethoorn]. There are no roads in the village center. So, people use mostly waterways to transport themselves in Giethoorn village. Therefore, a comparison with the Italian Venice is often made. Just like in real Venice, you do almost everything here by boat. Next, we will go to [Zaanse Schans(Windmill Village)] for a delightful exploration of traditional Dutch windmills and wooden houses. Afterward, continue to the capital city of the Netherlands, Amsterdam. Stroll around the vibrant part of this city -[Dam Square] and visit [Royal Coster Diamonds].You can also experience canal cruise to see the city from a different perspective. Overnight in Amsterdam or nearby.

the whole day 🕒

Windmill Village

[Windmill Village]

The famous Zaanse Schans windmill folk village in the suburbs of Amsterdam - wooden shoe workshop, cheese house, windmill group. The 19 nostalgic windmills built around 1740 have been preserved to this day and have been listed by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site and the largest existing windmill in the Netherlands.

Giethoorn

[Giethoorn]

Giethoorn is located in the De Wieden Nature Reserve in the province of Overijssel in the northwest of the Netherlands. During the Ice Age, De Wieden was located between two hail belts, so the terrain was lower than the surrounding area. Giethoorn is known as the "Green Venice" (also known as "Venice of the Netherlands").
