[Seine]

The Seine is a 777-kilometre-long (483 mi) river in northern France. Nearly its whole length is available for recreational boating; excursion boats offer sightseeing tours of the river banks in the capital city, Paris.

[Eiffel Tower]

The Eiffel Tower is a wrought-iron lattice tower on the Champ de Mars in Paris, France. It is named after the engineer Gustave Eiffel, whose company designed and built the tower from 1887 to 1889. Locally nicknamed "La dame de fer" (French for "Iron Lady"), it was constructed as the centerpiece of the 1889 World's Fair, and to crown the centennial anniversary of the French Revolution. Although initially criticised by some of France's leading artists and intellectuals for its design, it has since become a global cultural icon of France and one of the most recognisable structures in the world.

[Versailles Palace]

One of the world's five major palaces, in this legendary palace of extravagance, the golden gates are magnificent. The palatial interior is extremely luxurious, and the hall is still stunning, with cultural relics that carry centuries of history and loneliness, and people remember the old days in the settled dust.
